ONCE UPON A TIME . . .

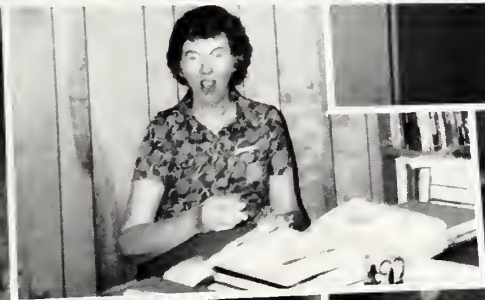

*Mercilite 1986
Mercy School of Nursing
1921 Vail Avenue
Charlotte, NC 28207*

Our Fair Lady

As we entered Mercy, full of fear and anticipation we were greeted by someone who would guide and direct us in learning our new profession. She showed us that she believed in us and would walk beside us through whatever we were to encounter. She was there to deliver a smile or a hug to make the good times better and the bad times bearable. While sharing her life experiences we were able to gain insight into what lay ahead of us. As our years at Mercy come to a close, we think back upon the times we have shared with a special lady who was also to begin a new life at Mercy. It is to you, Miss Dotty Schwobel, that we lovingly dedicate the 1986 Mercilite.

Special Recognition

In our busy days at Mercy, special efforts made on our behalf cannot be overlooked. We take time to recognize a special person who has added an extra bit of encouragement and enthusiasm to our days. He was always there whether it was to open the back door on cold rainy days or to help decorate for our prom at the last minute. For all these things and more, we love you Chester Reel.

My Goals

A little braver when the skies are gray,
A little stronger when the road seems long,
A little more of the patience through the day,
And not so quick to magnify a wrong.

A little kinder, both of thought and deed,
A little gentler with the old and weak,
Swifter to sense another's pressing need
And not so fast the hurtful phrase to speak.

These are my goals—not flung beyond my power,
Not dreams of glory, beautiful by vain,
Not the great heights where buds of genius flower,
But simple splendors which I ought to gain.

These I can do and be from day to day
Along the humble pathway where I plod,
So that at last when I am called away
I need not make apologies to God.

*Everybody, Everywhere needs happiness, it's true,
But finding it and keeping it seems difficult to do.
Difficult because we think that happiness is found
Only in Places where wealth and fame abound.
And so we go on searching in "palaces of pleasure"
Seeking recognition and monetary treasure,
Unaware that happiness is just a "state of mind"
Within the reach of everyone who takes time to be kind—
For in making OTHERS happy we will be happy, too,
For the happiness you give away returns to "shine on you"*

Nature

*The world is too much with us; late and soon,
Getting and spending, we lay waste our powers:
Little we see in Nature that is ours;
We have given our hearts away, a sordid boon!
The Sea that bares her bosom to the moon.
The winds that will be howling at all hours,
And are up-gathered now like sleeping flowers;
For this, for everything, we are out of tune;
It moves us not.—Great God! I'd rather be
A Pagan, suckled in a creed outworn,
So might I, standing on this pleasant lea,
Have glimpses that would make me less forlorn;
Have sight of Proteus rising from the sea;
Or hear old Triton blow his wreathed horn.*

Take time to work—
It is the price of success.
Take time to think—
It is the source of power.
Take time to play—
It is the secret of perpetual youth
Take time to read—
It is the foundation of wisdom.
Take time to be friendly—
It is the road to happiness.
Take time to love and be loved—
It is the privilege of the gods
Take time to share—
Life is too short to be selfish.
Take time to laugh—
Laughter is the music of the Soul.

Happiness

*Happiness is like a crystal,
Fair & exquisite & clear,
Broken in a million pieces,
Shattered, scattered far and near.
Now & then along life's pathway,
Lo! some shining fragments fall;
But there are so many pieces
No one ever finds them all.*

*You may find a bit of beauty,
Or an honest share of wealth,
While another just beside you
Gathers honor, love or health.
Vain to choose or grasp unduly,
Broken is the perfect ball;
And there are so many pieces
No one ever finds them all.*

*Yet the wise as on they journey
Treasure every fragment clear,
Fit them as they may together
Imaging the shattered sphere,
Learning ever to be thankful,
Though their share of it is small;
For it has so many pieces
No one ever finds them all.*

He gives strength when we are weary,
And when we lack might, He will

Though youths grow weary and

Always Have A Dream

Forget about the days when it's been cloudy,
but don't forget your hours in the sun ...
Forget about the times you've been defeated,
but don't forget the victories you've won ...

Forget about mistakes that you can't change now,
but don't forget the lessons that you've learned ...
Forget about misfortunes you've encountered,
but don't forget the times you luck has turned ...

Forget about the days when you've been lonely,
but don't forget the friendly smiles you've seen ...
Forget about the plans that didn't seem to work out right,
but don't forget to always have a dream.

AT DAY'S END

*Is anybody happier because you passed his way?
Does anyone remember that you spoke to him today?
The day is almost over, and its toiling
time is through;
Is there anyone to utter now a kindly word of you?
Can you say tonight, in parting with the day that's slipping fast,
That you helped a single brother of the many that you passed?
Is a single heart rejoicing over what you did or said?
Does the man whose hopes were fading,
now with courage look ahead?
Did you waste the day, or lose it? Was it well or sorely spent?
Did you leave a trail of kindness, or a scar of discontent?
As you close your eyes in slumber, do you think that God will say,
"You have earned one more tomorrow
by the work you did today?"*

New Friends & Old Friends
Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.
New-made friendships, like new wine,
Age will mellow and refine.
Friendships that have stood the test—
Time and change—are surely best;
Brow many wrinkle, hair grow gray;
Friendship never knows decay.
For mid old friends, tried & true,
Once more we reach and youth renew.
But old friends, alas! may die;
New friends must their place supply;
Cherish friendships in your breast—
New is good, but old is best;
Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.

A SMILE

A smile costs nothing but gives much. It enriches those who receive, without making poorer those who give. It takes but a moment, but the memory of it sometimes lasts forever. No one is so rich or mighty that he can get along without it, and no one is so poor but that he can be made rich by it. A smile creates happiness in the home, fosters good will in business, and is the countersign of friendship. It brings rest to the weary, cheer to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad, and is nature's best antidote for trouble. Yet it cannot be bought, begged, borrowed, or stolen, for it is something that is of no value to anyone until it is given away. Some people are too tired to give a smile. Give them one of yours, as no one needs a smile so much as he who has none to give.

Success

Success is speaking words of praise,
In cheering other people's ways,
In doing just the best you can,
With every task and every plan,
It's silence when your speech would hurt,
Politeness when your neighbor's curt,
It's deafness when the scandal flow's,
And sympathy with other's woes,
It's loyalty when duty calls,
It's courage when disaster falls,
It's patience when the hours are long,
It's found in laughter and in song,
It's in the silent time of prayer,
In happiness and in despair,
In all of life and nothing less,
We find the thing we call success.

The Girl in the Glass

When you get what you want in your struggle for self
And the world makes you
Queen for a day,
Then go to the mirror and look at yourself
And see what the girl has to say.
For it isn't your mother, your father, or husband
Whose judgement on you must pass,
The person whose verdict counts most in your life
Is the girl staring back from the glass.
She's the person to please
never mind all the rest,
For she is with you clear to the end;
And you've passed your most dangerous
and difficult test
If the girl in the glass is your friend.
You may be like Jack Horner and chisel a plum
And think you are a wonderful girl,
But the girl in the glass says you are a bum
If you can't look her straight in the eye.
You may fool the wide world
down the pathway of years
And get pats on the back as you pass
But the final regard will be headaches and tears
If you've cheated the girl in the glass.

And taken unreadable notes by the ream,
I've poured over print that seemed quite microscopic,
And researched and researched till I could just scream,
I've sentenced myself to scholastic confinement,
And analyzed, memorized, pondered and crammed,
I've studied the need for each homework assignment,
Examined the value of being examined,
I've questioned and answered in class my full quota,
I've tried not to snooze—or at least not snore,
I've used my IQ down to its last iota,
So Thank Gosh I've finished cause . . . I can't take it

Dear Lord,

Thou Great Healer, may Thy great strength and power flow through me and lend skill to my hand, vision and judgement to my mind, and compassion to my heart. Grant me the strength to minister to my fellowman in his hours of suffering and travail. Make me worthy, Lord, of this saintly task and may I faithfully discharge my duties in deep humility, worthy of the trust and faith placed in me.

Amen.

Thanks Mom and Dad for all you've done
Not only for the days of laughter and fun,
But for being there on days of gloom.
When things would look so full of doom.
Your support has meant so much.
For this and everything—I love you a bunch!

True Greatness

A man is as great as the dreams he dreams
As great as the love he bears;
As great as the values he redeems,
And the happiness he shares.
A man is as great as the thoughts he thinks,
As the worth he has attained;
As the fountains at which his spirit drinks
And the insight he has gained.
A man is as great as the truth he speaks,
As great as the help he gives,
As great as the destiny he seeks,
As great as the life he lives.

*Everyone needs at least
one good, close friend;
one who means a lot,
and one who can share secrets and feelings,
that might otherwise be locked up and afraid to come out.
Everyone needs someone who cares—and doesn't hide it;
Someone to ease the down moods.
Thank-you . . . for being the one for me.
I hope my friendship has been at least half as good for you, because friends as special as you are hard to find.*

What does it take to make a day?
 A lot of love along the way:
 It takes a morning and a noon,
 A father's voice, a mother's croon;
 It takes some task to challenge all
 The powers that a man may call
 His own: the powers of mind and limb;
 A whispered word of love; a hymn
 Of hope—a comrade's cheer—
 A baby's laughter and a tear;
 It takes a dream, a hope, a cry
 Of need from some soul passing by;
 A sense of brotherhood and love;
 A purpose sent from God above;
 It takes a sunset in the sky,
 The stars of night, the winds that sigh;
 It takes a breath of scented air,
 A mother's kiss, a baby's prayer.
 That is what it takes to make a day:
 A lot of love along the way.

I pray the Lord I won't go nutty.
If I should fail to learn this junk,
I pray the Lord I will not flunk.
But if I do, don't pity me at all,
Just lay my bones down in study hall.
Tell my teacher I did my best,
Then pile my books upon my chest.
Now I lay me down to rest,
And I pray I'll pass tomorrow's test.
If I should die before I wake,
That's one less test I'll take.*

As our book is opened to reveal pages of our busy lives, we take time to recall the good times as well as the tough ones. Surviving the challenge of becoming a Mercy nurse is one that we all look upon differently. Hopefully this collection of the times at Mercy will bring back happy memories. I hope that the memories contained in this yearbook are as special as the ones that were brought back to me while compiling our 1986 Mercilite.

CONGRATULATIONS
to PAMELA BARD
and the
GRADUATING CLASS OF 1986

Dear Pam,

You have worked very hard to become a good nurse, and I congratulate you on a job well done.

You have proven yourself to be "all Growned up" and quite capable of managing the many responsibilities that will be yours in the future.

We are extremely proud of you sweetheart, and very pleased to know that you are happy and content with what you will be doing with your life.

We wish you the best of everything and we love you very much.

Love,
Daddy
Judy
Debra

Congratulations
AMY
and
The Class of '86!

Best wishes from Amy's family

Kim,

Our sincere congratulations and best wishes. We're very proud of you and your achievements. May God Bless you in your chosen profession.

Love,
Dad & Elaine

Congratulations Class of '86

Cheryl

Our love and best wishes

Mom and Dad

To Gina
Congratulations on your chosen career.
We luv Ya!

Mom & Dad

Trena,

Congratulations! We are so proud of you. Remember to put the Lord first and may He bless you as you close another Chapter of your life and begin a new one. Your father would have been proud of his little girl.

With all our love,
Mother and Tony

Sherry,

Do all the good you can, in all the ways you can, for all the People you can, while you can. Always remember to press toward the goal to win the supreme and heavenly prize to which God in Christ has called you to. Congratulations as you continue your calling.

We love you,
Mom & Dad

Susan,

"Congratulations! We're proud of you!"

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Lynn

Lisa, FIRST MEETING
I am well versed in the art
(And it is an art)
Of loving a growing person.
I loved a little girl with a doll,
A little girl who was once my doll.
I loved a troubled teen
(Get off my case!),
Though it was a bit harder
At sixteen than at six.
Now the dilemma—
Your third year away ended,
How to properly love
This radiant woman,
Beloved stranger in my life.
Love, Mom

Congratulations—Mary Anne

*May Success and Happiness be yours always
We love you
Mom, Dad and Timmy*

Congratulations Pam!

We love you!

Mama, R.A.,
Derek and Chad

Donna,

*Where the Golden Sun is setting
And the path so seldom trod—
May your name in Gold be written
In the autograph of God.
We're Very Proud of You!!*

Love—Mom & Dad

Donna,
The sweet memories of her childhood,
the joy and happiness of her love today,
the bright dreams for all her tomorrows—
these are the blessings of a daughter.
Mary Ann Lowden
Congratulations! We are so proud of you and wish you the best in your nursing career.

Love,
Mama and Daddy

Congratulations C.J.

*We knew you could do it!
We are all very proud of you
And we love you dearly.
Now go out there and show the world what you're made of.
Momma, Daddy, Clyde, Polly and Amanda*

Congratulations Sharon!

*We are proud of you.
Hope you the best in the future, and in everything you choose in life. We love you Cooder.*

Daddy, Mama
Doug, Randy, Shelia
and Jeremy.

Sandra Ballard Faulkenberry, the first daughter born in San Diego, CA, has always been a joy for both of us. From the time she was a freshman in high school, her goal was to be a nurse. Her love and compassion for others show in her daily life. We're very proud of her accomplishments and know she'll do well in everything she undertakes. We love you Sandra! May God Bless You.

*Love,
Mom & Dad*

Lisa,

When you were in your first year and it was the hardest, I told you that you were not promised "A Rose Garden". You made it and I'm so very proud of you.

Dad

Carin

Thinking of you brings such special thoughts and cherished memories, too, of what it has always meant to have a granddaughter like you. A granddaughter who has always brought such joy to every day and who deserves the nicest things that life can bring her way.

*Love,
Nanny & Pops*

Carin,

No words can describe the warm memories, the pride, and the gratitude, too, that comes from having a daughter to love and cherish like you. You have always brought just so much joy and happiness to my life, you will never know how much you are loved. May you have the things in life you so richly deserve.

*Love,
Dad*

*Carin,
As a daughter you have always been a source of pride and joy, always glad to share and help showing that you care.
As a person of your own, you are a source of joy, always so warm and giving. Looking on the bright side, finding fun in daily living.
You bring a special touch to everything you do.
Carin, you are loved both as a daughter and a person so very, very much.*

*Love,
Mom & Johnny*

Deborah:

*Yvette,
CONGRATULATIONS!*

We are so very proud of you and wish you all the luck and happiness life has to offer. Our love and best wishes go with you as you start your new life.

*We love you very much!
Mom, Dad and Lisa*

*Kathy, you have worked very hard in the last three years to reach graduation day. We are very proud of your achievements.
May your chosen profession fulfill your hopes and dreams.*

*Love & Best Wishes
Mom & Dad*

Dear Patia,

Congratulations! May you always share your kindness and new talents with those who will need you.

With love and appreciation
Mom & Dad

Tammy,

Congratulations on your success at Mercy—I know you are going to make a success of your career, because that's the type person you are. We love you dearly.

Mom & Dad

Jennifer,

A journey of a thousand miles is accomplished by taking the first step! We're very proud of you.

Congratulations
Love,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations! Trena

You're so precious to me and these past three years have been long and hard but wonderful with you in my life. Will you marry me, now?

I love you,
Earl

Congratulations Selena

We are very proud of you.
You will always be our favorite nurse.

Your family

Tammy Baker

This makes all the time we spent
apart worth it!
I'm so proud of you

Love Always

Congratulations Kim Eudy

Our past three years have been filled with pain, sharing, happiness, and a love that has often seemed like a fairytale. Only GOD knows what the future holds for us, but I know that my love will continue to follow you throughout your new profession . . . And your life, May GOD bless you in all that you do KIM.

I Love You Kim,
